

COMMUNITY GARDEN TOUR: SATURDAY, AUG. 4, 2012

On Saturday, Aug. 4, 9AM-12:30PM, everyone is invited to tour five of greater Green Bay's many community gardens. Hosts will be at each garden during the times listed below to answer your questions.

9 AM - 10 AM: Three Corner's Community Garden

1120 University Avenue
Green Bay, WI 54302

Contact: Nancy Nabak 920- 468-8991

With Three Corners Neighborhood Association, Norbertine Volunteer Community and local residents, our garden includes raised boxes for accessibility needs of local residents. Produce is shared among participating residents, Golden House, and those who express a need.

9:30 AM - 10:30 AM: Seymour Park Community Garden

316 South Ashland Avenue (parking on S. Oakland)
Green Bay, WI 54303

Contact: Margaret Kubek 920-309-3281 mekubek@gmail.com
Kaitlin Koepke 920-639-1833

Kaitlin.jayne.koepke@gmail.com

Everything grown at the Seymour Park Community Garden is shared with our neighbors; we also offer a summer program that teaches kids about nutrition and gardening skills. The garden is sponsored by the Seymour Park Neighborhood Association, and relies upon volunteers and generous donations from individuals and area organizations.

10:30 AM - 11:30 AM: Tsyunhehkw[^] Community Gardens
(Oneida Nation)

Highway 54 West - Just North of Haven Drive
Green Bay, WI 54155

Contact: Jeff Metoxen 920- 869-2141; 920-713-8639
jmetoxen@oneidanation.org

We require organic gardening techniques and prohibit the use of GMO or treated seeds and conventional fertilizers. Whatever the gardeners decide to grow is theirs to do with as they wish. We encourage our growers to sell at the Oneida Farmer's Market.

11:00 AM - 12:00 PM: Franklin School Native Gardens

1234 West Mason
Green Bay, WI 54303

Contact: Ned Dorff neddorff@gmail.com

The largest prairie garden in the city of Green Bay was planted by students, staff and community volunteers. It features beautiful plants, including queen of the prairie, Michigan lily, indigo, and several asters and coneflowers. Kids enjoy the wild strawberries, onions, and raspberries.

11:30 AM - 12:30 PM: Gathering Place Garden

1001 Cherry Street
Green Bay, WI 54303

Contact: Tina Mercier 920-819-0625

The Gathering Place is the local drop-in recovery center for those with mental illness, overseen by NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness).
